

Seward Bird BINGO & Facts!

 Black Legged Kittiwake Winters out at sea, nests on cliffs	 Brown Creeper: climb trees looking behind bark for bugs	 Black Billed Magpie: trainable as pets, same family as jays	 Raven: much larger than crows, one of the worlds smartest animals	 Harlequin Duck: Winters along coastlines with crashing surf
 Surf Scoter: wings make humming sound in flight	 Pelagic Cormorant White on rump Double Crested Cormorant has white crests	 Tufted Puffin: tufts are only for breeding. Digs burrows into cliffs for nesting.	 Mew Gull: the only "white-headed" gull that uses trees for nesting.	 Steller's Jay: can mimic the call of other birds. Only jay with a crest.
 Common Murre: deepest diving bird at up to 590 ft	 Black Oystercatcher: lays black and white speckled eggs directly on rocks of beaches.	 Pine Grosbeak: has a pouch for food transport when nesting	 Bald Eagle: live about 20 years. 3-5 years before balding	 Semi-palmated plover: palmated means webbing between the toes. Seen running along shorelines.
 Violet/Green Swallow: will migrate south by August. Catch bugs in the air	 Pigeon Guillemot: A group is known as a bazaar, same family as puffins	 Glaucous Wing Gulls Hybridize with Herring Gulls	 Arctic Tern: Breeds in Arctic, winters in Antarctic, longest bird migration	 Kittlitz's Murrelet Prefers tidewater glacier habitat
 Varied Thrush: song is a humming whistle, very hard to find	 American Dipper: only aquatic song bird. Can run under water in streams.	 Barrow's Goldeneye: Females may lay eggs in other females nests to be raised by them	 Horned Puffin: nests in rock crevasses of cliffs. All puffins only come to land 1x a year to breed	 Marbled Murrelet: nest in the moss of old growth trees